MEETINGS FIRST AND THIRD TUESDAYS, 8 P. M.

COUNCILMEN

REGINALD MORAN
JAMES M. ROBERTS
JOSEPH A. WELLS
JOHN MARQUETTE
HARRY W. OPITZ

March 9, 1943

The meeting of the Mayor and Common Council was called to order at 8:15 p.m. by Mayor Van Moreland with Councilmen Wells, Roberts, and Moran present. The minutes of the meeting for February 2 were read and approved.

The following bills were ordered paid:J. Theodore Crown $7.40 for purchase of new assessment book and one bottle of ink, The Hyattsville Independent $86.21for publishing the 1942 delinquent tax list, the Marlboro Enquirer Gazette $49.50 for printing of stationery and new assessment bills, Jeannette Wyvill $30.00 for rewriting new assessment book.

Councilman James M. Roberts was complained that a dog he identified, as belonging to Edwin Cisseljumped on Henry Sampson while he was walking with Mr. Roberts near the Cissel home. Although the dog did not bite Mr. Sampson both he and Mr. Roberts were frightened by the dogs action. The council voted to instruct the clerk to communicate with Mr. Cissel by letter and cite Chapter 5, section 2 of the town Charter concerning dogs running at large.

The Council voted to terminate the completion bond of Walton G. Banks and so inform Reeves Blandford Agent for the bonding company.

Harry G. Mercer, Red Cross First Aid Instructor, was appointed Custodian of the O.C.D. equipment to be distributed in Seat Pleasant, he was granted the privelege of storing the goods in the council chambers until distributed.

A letter was ordered sent to J. Robert Sherwood, Prince Georges County Defense Council Director informing him that the town truck is not in condition to haul salvage tin cans.

Another letter was ordered sent to Mr. Joseph Chaney of the State Roads Commission requesting that the bottleneck at Carmody Road where it intersects Chapel Road be eliminated.

The meeting adjourned at 9:50.
