COUNCILMEN

REGINALD MORAN
JAMES M. ROBERTS
JOSEPH A. WELLS
JOHN MARQUETTE
HARRY W. OPITZ

June 24, 1943

A special meeting of the Mayor and Common Council was held at the home of J. T. Crown, clerk, 6802 C St. with Mayor Moreland presiding and Councilmen Wells, Roberts and Marquette present.

On the motion of Joseph Wells seconded by James M. Roberts and carried, the council agreed to sign a contract with Joseph H. DeVeau & Son, general contractor of 6315 Brookville Rd., Chevy Chase, Md. to surface 68th, Foote and Eads Streets and repair all other hard surfaced streets for the sum of $3,532.70.

The treasurer was authorized by a motion made by Councilman Roberts seconded by councilman Wells and carried to arrange a loan for not more than $2,000 to aid in financing the contract.

The resignation of Councilman Reginald Moran was accepted with regret and a letter was ordered thanking him for his good work in the past ten years. Laurence Morgan of 6700 C St. was elected to fill the unexpired term of Councilman Moran on the motion of Councilman Roberts, seconded by Councilman Marquette and carried. Mayor Moreland appointed Councilman Wells as chairman of the Road Committee to succeed Mr. Moran.

Clerk Crown was authorized to purchase $15 worth of stamps.

The meeting adjourned at 9:15 p.m.
